GREETINGS FROM THE DIRECTOR

I love this time of year. I hate to see summer go but if what it means is we slide into this crisp, colorful season, let it be.

Recently I was asked to provide the message at the Unitarian Universalist Church. My theme was prayer which is a complicated one for me but it became very simple. I stole my thoughts from Anne Lamott who wrote a whole book on prayer called "Help, Thanks, Wow!"

I got so much more out of writing the message than anyone there will retain, I’m sure, and it resonates with me on a day like today when I have struggled with some thorny problems, had some remarkable wins and have been jolted out of my own sorry headspace by the spectacular. Last week out of the blue I tested positive for Covid, long after I had somehow convinced myself that it would pass me by. No sir. It was no worse than a bad head cold and cough thanks to the vaccines, but the fatigue just doesn't suit my style. So - "Help." And Help I have had from incredible staff, friends, professionals who think creatively and family who said - your turn to slow down.

So - "Thanks" to those who pitched in and for the fact that I live in a world with remedies and where I am cared for. A practice I learned many years ago is the "Three Good Things." Each night before you go to sleep:

1. Think of three good things that happened today.
2. Write them down.
3. Reflect on why they happened.

If you don't have time, the short version is to say "Thanks."

And "Wow." For all the things that are bigger than me, brighter than my crayons, more subtle than a whisper, as delicious as Weston’s corn, as uplifting as a great sentence. "Wow" does not have to be held in reserve but can be applied liberally to all those, gasp, heart-skipping moments of joy or wonder.

Here at the Gibson Center we hope we bring all of you assistance when you need and generous moments of delight. Read on.

SILVER LAKE LANDING GETS NEW EFFICIENT HEATING

Thanks to the wonderful generosity of several donors, we were able to replace our 22 year-old oil burners at Silver Lake Landing with high efficiency, cleaner and less expensive propane heating for the 19 apartments of the north and south buildings. Just in time for the heating season. It is estimated that we might save $12,000 in fuel costs per year by making this shift. Eastern Propane orchestrated the switch with hardly a day without heat or water for the residents. While no one is particularly excited by having tanks in front of the gorgeous lake view, I have lots of plans for landscaping with tall shrubs, lilacs, hydrangeas, and grasses that will blend them right in. I had plans for leafy murals on the white walls but was told that is a dangerous No-NO. Oh well. We are pleased.

KILL-A-WATT-PREVENT ELECTRICITY WASTAGE

The average American household uses 1.45 kilowatt hours (kWh) of “phantom load” electricity per day or approximately 43 billion kwh per year. Examples of phantom loads are coffee makers, sound and TV equipment, computers and chargers – anything with a light or a digital readout. At current NH electricity rates, that is an average of $150 per family per year.

Besides phantom load, many of us are running very old, inefficient appliances (think that old freezer in the basement) that might need to be replaced for cleaner, less costly service.

To know how much electricity and dollars you could save, you can now borrow a Kill-A-Watt meter from the Gibson Center, the Jackson, Pope, Conway, Madison or Tamworth Cook libraries. These small devices come with step-by-step instructions for plugging the device into your wall socket and plugging the appliance into the meter and leaving it for several days or a week. Pushing the KWH button will display the KWHs used since you plugged in the meter. Push it again and you will get the number of hours.

A 20-year-old refrigerator of about 17 cu. ft. could use 1,700 kWh of electricity every year, compared with about 450 kWh for a similarly sized new ENERGY STAR model that costs between $750-950. At $0.31 per kWh, that is $387 per year so the new refrigerator is paid for in 2-3 years.

We are all becoming more energy conscious. Let us make it easy for you to identify and reduce wasted electricity charges in your home or office.

MORE FUNDING FOR COMPUTERS AND TRAINING

The Gibson Center has just received a $10,000 grant from Spectrum and another smaller one from Digitunity – a non-profit that distributes computers to libraries, schools and homes – to allow us to purchase Chromebooks and provide teaching to advance computer skills. We are partnering with the Conway Public Library to bring you videos, one-one tutoring, and classes for everything from how to do basic internet searches, how to avoid fraud and scams, how to use video-conferencing, email, and many other functions you want and need. Increasingly having smartphone or computer capability is being required to communicate with healthcare offices, town offices, make applications and find critical information. We are here to help. We will have full details in the coming weeks for how to obtain a Chromebook if you need and how to participate in the training. We will not let you be left behind.
STAY WARM, SAFE AND DRY HOME REPAIR EXPANDS

The Stay Warm, Safe, and Dry home repair and modification program is growing its capacity! Renee has found a roofer and a sheet rock painter who can extend our services beyond those provided by Adam (who you can see, has been taking care of our building as well as others). We are dedicated to helping older adults stay in their homes safely.

Adam can work on outdoor lighting, railings or holes that need repair. Other sample projects include replacing or repairing porch steps, changing out air filters, installing smoke or CO alarms, or other repairs that increase health and safety. Now Renee can help you find a roofer for hole repairs, or connect you with a sheet rock repair contractor.

We want to emphasize this service is for persons of all incomes but not free. Those who can afford to, pay the contractors directly for materials and time. Those who qualify as low income with USDA are provided up to $10,000 in grant coverage. Renee Wheaton is available to take your requests and schedule an assessment of the job and get it done. Call her at (603)-205-0909.

It is all part of our mission to help seniors age in place, independently with dignity and purpose.

OLLI OFFERINGS WITH THE GIBSON CENTER

Gibson continues to co-sponsor programs with OLLI this autumn.

It also allows you to attend free Special Interest Groups: Hiking; Winter Snowshoeing; Games Group; Munch Bunch. Cost for classes vary but hover around $20-$25. Scholarships for Gibson Center patrons are available. You can see the listings and virtually hear from the presenters by going to www.oli.granite.edu You can also call 603-513-1377 with questions.

CARE GIVERS

There are now two options for caregivers, REACH, and 1:1 Peer Support. Call Jill if you are interested in either.

REACH: stands for Resources for Enhancing Alzheimer's Caregiver Health in the Community. Caregivers will meet with trained coaches and learn to solve common caregiver challenges. Meeting options are currently in-person one-to-one coaching or via phone or ZOOM.

Caregiver Peer Support: There are caregivers who have probably experienced your challenges and can offer a non-judgmental ear. Currently caregivers prefer phone calls so they can keep their loved ones safe.
The first Opening Minds through Art, OMA, program was a wonderful success this summer. The six session series will be repeated starting October 13th – led by Lori Stearns, our OMA Facilitator. OMA enables people with dementia to assume new roles as artists and teachers and leave a legacy of beautiful artwork.

OMA was founded by Dr. Elizabeth “Like” Lokon in 2007 and is grounded in person-centered care principles. People with dementia (artists) are paired with volunteers (students, families, caregivers) who are trained to rely on imagination instead of memory and focus on remaining strengths instead of lost skill to create works of art for display.

The Gibson Center is one of 5 organizations in the community wide grant which is working toward a Dementia Friendly Community, one that offers programs to allow people to continue to live independently in the community for as long as possible. Programs are offered for both the person with any level of dementia, as well as offering support for the caregivers. OMA is one of the programs that is being offered through out the community.

We are looking for people who would like to join the program, both artists and volunteers. Please contact Jill Reynolds if you are interested in Opening Minds through Art...OMA. Look for our art show this winter!

The Gibson Center will be closed on Columbus Day, Monday the 10th

BINGO will be played after lunch on Monday the 17th. Bring a prize for the table. Just donated, a couple of DD Gift Certificates.

Monday the 12th we will play BINGO. Bring a prize for the table.

General Election 5 Minute Forum: prepare for your civic duty, by hearing the candidates share their platforms, or why they think you should vote for them. After lunch on Tuesday the 18th.

AARP HomeFit: Monday the 24th, after lunch. AARP surveys consistently find that older adults want to remain in their current homes and communities for as long as possible. Yet barely one percent of the nation’s housing supply contains any “universal design” elements — such as single story living or a sink that can be reached from a wheelchair. That’s where AARP HomeFit comes in. Based on the free AARP HomeFit Guide, this presentation can help individuals and families make their current or future residence — or that of a loved one — their “lifelong home.” Please register for this free class, so that enough AARP HomeFit Guides will be available for all participants.

Book Club: If you love to read, save the 4th Tuesday of every month, and join the book club after lunch. Pamela Memmolo will chair the first meeting, when the group will determine which books to read. The Conway Public Library will supply books for people who choose to borrow rather than purchase the books. See you after lunch Tuesday the 25th. Please sign up.

Halloween: People who are young at heart are invited to join the fun by wearing a costume or festive sweater to lunch. Dave and the kitchen crew will make something spookily delicious for lunch. Afterwards, the bus will head out to watch the school children parade their costumes.

Looking Ahead:

- Gibson OLLI Lunch n Learn: Adventure with Confidence: Invite your fellow explorers for lunch and stay for this informative demonstration on ways to get ready for the winter season. Exercise Specialist Ann Fargo, and Outdoor Enthusiast, Cort Hanson from Ragged Mountain will demonstrate easy exercises and sample equipment so you can enjoy the winter season. Tuesday, November 1st. Lunch starts at 11:30AM, the program will be after lunch

- AARP Safe Driver Course: The 6-hour class will be offered at the Gibson Center on Wednesday November 30th. Many insurance companies provide substantial discounts for completion. Be safe and feel capable this winter on the roads. The class is $25 for non-members, and $20 for AARP members. It runs from 9AM to 4PM with a break for lunch in the dining room. Please sign up, 603-356-3231.

October 12th, board the bus for the Currier Museum at 9AM, and be home about 4PM. In addition to their amazing displays of art, there is a special Exhibit called Gee’s Bend Quilts. Bring a brown bag lunch to eat on the bus, or visit the museum cafe. $38 includes transportation and admission.
